Homecoming

"Come and see." These words perfectly capture the wonderful experience of our homecoming event at FBC. After many years of prayer and support for the work here in Iceland, people finally had the chance to witness firsthand what God has accomplished. Missionaries Patrick and Victoria, after decades of dedication and love, were finally able to celebrate the completion of FBC's construction. Personally, I cherished the opportunity to sit and pray with several faithful ministers before every service. It was an honor to serve and help organize this special event. Please pray that the hearts of our church members remain spiritually nourished and that we continue to reach people for Christ here in Iceland.

Wedding

Here we go! I am now married to the love of my life, Phyllis. She grew up in Germany, moved to Iceland as a teenager, and came to know Christ through my parents' ministry. I am thrilled to begin this journey with her. God has called both of us to ministry, and we are committed to serving here in Iceland. As the Scripture says, "Let them give glory unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands" (Isaiah 42:12). I have had the privilege of working alongside Phyllis for several years, particularly in our bus ministry. Her faithfulness and dedication to Christ are truly exemplary. I am humbled by the responsibility God has entrusted to me and am deeply grateful that Phyllis is now my wife. I look forward to falling in love with her every day. Please pray that I grow to be a good husband and that Christ remains at the center of our marriage.

Summer Camp

It was amazing. Every week, our church sacrifices time to invest in our bus ministry. These kids do not have Christian homes and parents, but they get to experience the hope of Christ with our church – only on Sundays. This summer, we were blessed to hold summer camp, a week-long opportunity to impact these children for Christ. Many children decided to live differently, to be different. Please pray that God would continue to use our church to impact these children for Christ.

Thank you for your continued support and prayers!

Yours in Christ,
William and Phyllis Weimer
